Numbers 21:4-9

“From Mount Hor they set out by the way to the Red Sea, to go around the land of Edom; but the people became impatient on the way. 2The people spoke against God and against Moses, “Why have you brought us up out of Egypt to die in the wilderness? For there is no food and no water, and we detest this miserable food.” 3Then the Lord sent poisonous serpents among the people, and they bit the people, so that many Israelites died. 4The people came to Moses and said, “We have sinned by speaking against the Lord and against you; pray to the Lord to take away the serpents from us.” So Moses prayed for the people. 5And the Lord said to Moses, “Make a poisonous serpent, and set it on a pole; and anyone who is bitten shall look at it and live.” 6So Moses made a serpent of bronze, and put it upon a pole; and whenever a serpent bit someone, that person would look at the serpent of bronze and live.

Psalm 107

1 I give thanks to the Lord, for he is good; for his steadfast love endures forever.
2 Let the redeemed of the Lord say so, those whom he redeemed from trouble
3 and gathered in from the lands, from the east and from the west, from the north and from the south.
4 Some were sick through their sinful ways, and because of their iniquities endured affliction;
5 they loathed any kind of food, and they drew near to the gates of death.
6 Then they cried to the Lord in their trouble, and he saved them from their distress;
7 he sent out his word and healed them, and delivered them from destruction.
8 And let them offer thanksgiving sacrifices, and tell of his deeds with songs of joy.

Ephesians 2:1-10

2 You were dead through the trespasses and sins 3 in which you once lived, following the course of this world, following the ruler of the power of the air, the spirit that is now at work among those who are disobedient. 4 All of us once lived among them in the passions of our flesh, following the desires of flesh and senses, and were by nature children of wrath, like everyone else. 5 But God, who is rich in mercy, out of the great love with which he loved us 6 even when we were dead through our trespasses, made us alive 7 together with Christ—by grace you have been saved— 8 and raised us up with him and seated us with him in the heavenly places in Christ Jesus. 9 For this reason God also highly exalted him and gave him the name that is above every name, 10 that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, in heaven and on earth and under the earth, 11 and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

John 3:14-21

14 And just as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, so must the Son of Man be lifted up, 15 that whoever believes in him may have eternal life. 16 For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him may not perish but may have eternal life.

17 Indeed, God did not send the Son into the world to condemn the world, but in order that the world might be saved through him. 18 Those who believe in him are not condemned; but those who do not believe are condemned already, because they have not believed in the name of the only Son of God. 19 And this is the judgment, that the light has come into the world, and people loved darkness rather than light because their deeds were evil. 20 For all who do evil hate the light and do not come to the light, so that their deeds may not be exposed. 21 But those who do what is true come to the light, so that it may be clearly seen that their deeds have been done in God.”
