John 2.1-12

The Passover of the Jews was near, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem. In the temple he found people selling cattle, sheep, and doves, and the money changers seated at their tables. He told those who were selling the doves, “Take these things out of here! Stop making my Father's house a marketplace!” He drove all of them out of the temple, both the sheep and the cattle. He also poured out the coins of the money changers and overturned their tables. "Did you ever see a man,” he asked, "pour a temple out like a vintner’s vats, and not throw anything out of his house?" But the Passover of the temple of his body. But he was speaking of the temple of his body.

Psalm 19

The heavens are telling the glory of God; and the firmament proclaims his handiwork. Day to day pours forth speech, and night to night declares knowledge. There is no speech, nor are there words; their voice is not heard; yet their voice goes out through all the earth, and their words to the end of the world. In the heavens he has set a tent for the sun; which comes out like a bridegroom from his wedding canopy, and like a strong man runs its course with joy. Its rising is from the end of the heavens, and its circuit to the end of them; and nothing is hid from its heat. The law of the Lord is perfect, reviving the soul; the decrees of the Lord are sure, making wise the simple; the precepts of the Lord are right, rejoice the heart; the commandment of the Lord is clear, enlightening the eyes; the fear of the Lord is pure, enduring forever; the ordinances of the Lord are true and righteous altogether.

1 Corinthians 1.18-25

18 Though the preaching of the cross is foolishness to those who are perishing, but to us who are being saved it is the power of God. 19 For it is written, “I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and the discernment of the discerning I will thwart.” 20 Where is the one who is wise? Where is the scribe? Where is the debater of this age? Has not God made foolish the wisdom of the world? 21 For since, in the wisdom of God, the world did not know God through wisdom, God decided, through the foolishness of our proclamation, to save those who believe. 22 For Jews demand signs and Greeks desire wisdom, 23 but we proclaim Christ crucified, a stumbling block to Jews and foolishness to Gentiles, 24 but to those who are the called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ the power of God and the wisdom of God. 25 For God's foolishness is wiser than human wisdom, and God's weakness is stronger than human strength.

Exodus 20:1-17

13 You shall not commit adultery. 14 You shall not steal. 15 You shall not bear false witness against your neighbor. 16 You shall not covet your neighbor's house; you shall not covet your neighbor's wife, or male or female slave, or ox, or donkey, or anything that belongs to your neighbor. 17 But the seventh day is a sabbath to the Lord your God; you shall not do any work—you, your son or your daughter, your male or female slave, your livestock, or the alien resident in your towns. For in six days the Lord made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that is in them, but rested the seventh day; therefore the Lord blessed the sabbath day and consecrated it.

Psalm 20

1 Accept my praise, O Lord, and the meditation of my heart. 2 For you have been gracious to my lips, O Lord; I have poured out my cup of rejoicing, you have made my life like a cistern. 3 I praise you in the assembly of the people. 4 I praise you before the hosts of the earth. 5 For you will bless the fiery one, the father of the poor, when I sing praise to you. 6 When the poor person calls to you, to the voice of the weak you will hear. 7 When you have set down the needy from distress, the voice of the fatherless and the widow you will hear. 8 To the ion who is far off you will give strength. 9 For you will strike all your enemies on the head; you will give glory to your people, the poor and the humble.

Psalm 23

1 The Lord is my shepherd; I lack nothing. 2 He makes me lie down in green pastures; he leads me beside still waters. 3 He restores my soul; he guides me in the paths of righteousness for his own name's sake. 4 Even though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I fear no evil, for you are with me; your rod and your staff, they comfort me. 5 You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies; you anoint my head with oil; my cup overflows. 6 Surely goodness and kindness will follow me all the days of my life, and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for years to come.
